paulson shows how 18th century english poets and artists confronted the decline of high renaissance ideals in literary theory and aesthetics the book is less a single extended argument though than a collection of brilliant insights and interpretations pope as ovidian poet joseph wright as shandyan artist especially stimulating are the readings of hogarth wright gainsborough stubbs and constable that comprise the second half of the book except for the deconstructionist jargon the discussions are lucid and compelling highly recommended for libraries supporting graduate programs in literature or art een britse astronoom tracht een filmster te winnen in a provocative study that bristles with contemporary relevance himmelfarb demonstrates that the material and moral dimensions of poverty were inseparable in the minds of late victorians be they radical or conservative the aim of the contributors to this collection of chapters from the writings of well known british and north american geographers is to bridge the gap between the historical materialist and humanist interpretations of human geography the book is aimed at sociologists planners and geographers particular attention is paid to arguments developed by beck and giddens concerning individualization and he shows how the redrawing of individual relations is tied in to the remaking of social classes in complex and largely unrecognized ways this book brings together recent empirical research on class and should be of interest to students of social science wishing to learn about the debates on class analysis book jacket what happens when you try to find not only meaning but pattern and form in seventy years of a life it s not a simple process of chronological remembering it entails a remake to capture not facts but the contents of those facts the feelings of a war time child the textures of her clothing the tastes and smells the tones and the touch of her mother the felt absence of her father and the gradual transformation into womanhood the facts are simple birth in geneva bilingual childhood in brussels then london and liverpool work in intelligence at the bletchley park decoding centre during the war marriage oxford london literary journalism the emergence of the novelist but what do facts add up to remake is an autobiographical novel with a difference it uses life material to compose a third person fiction transformed in an experiment whose tensions are those of memory distorting and partial checked by a rigorous and sceptical language which probes and finds form underlying the wayward impulses and passions of the subject remake is a fascinating and original book by one of our finest modern novelists
